

Bill Drayton: "Once a Young Person Has Had a Dream, Built a Team, and Changed Their World...They Will Be a Changemaker for Life"

Bill Drayton 18 July 2017

In elementary school I could not imagine why I was being tortured by Latin or Math, and my perception of soccer was chiefly that of being a crashee.

But I loved starting things, especially newspapers. Once I had saved enough to buy a mimeograph machine (the prior technology being typing hard with as many carbon copy sheets as possible), I was unstoppable.

Continue reading at Ashoka...